1974 Pathfinder
Fremont High School
Sunnyvale, California

Those were the days . . .
my friend,

. . . when we hurried between mods
to meet a friend,
or finished homework,
or said hasty good-byes at the lockers,
or grabbed a bite at the snack bar.

we thought they'd never end.

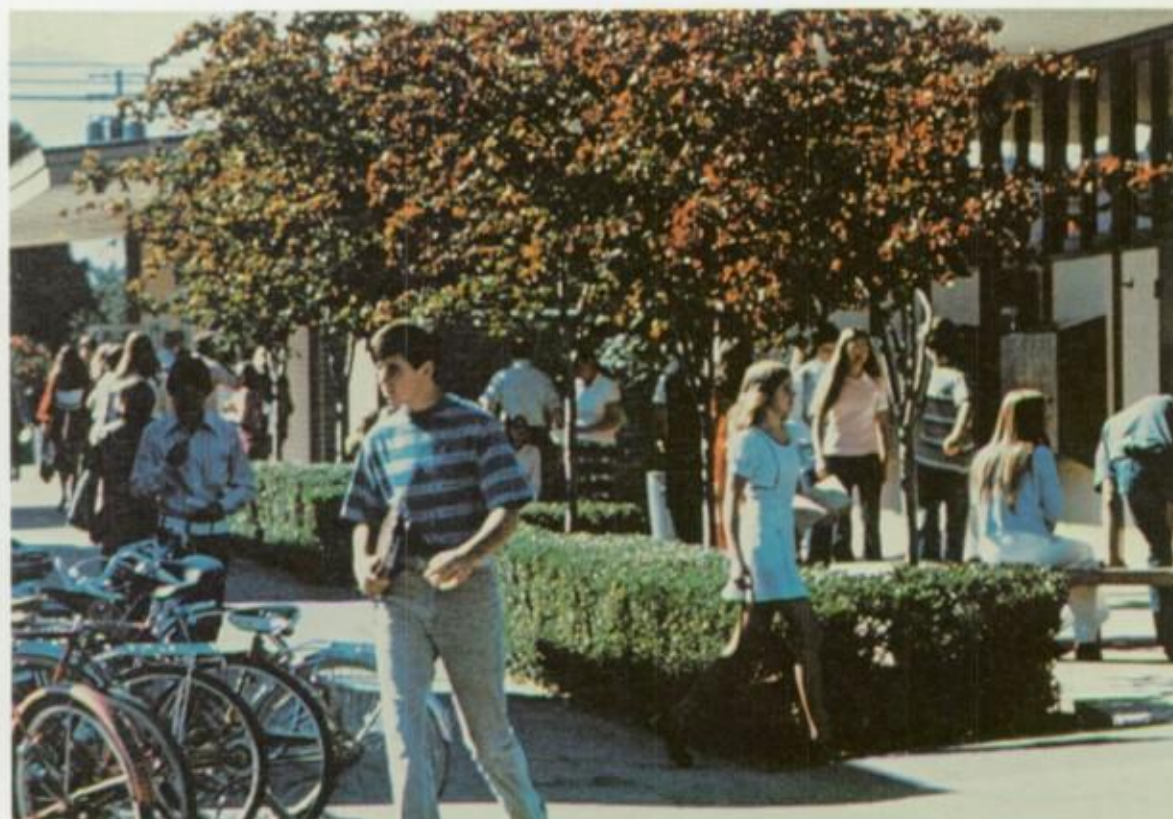

We'd sing and dance...

... when we danced to Papa du run da run,
or the Homecoming's
Aloha Oe,
or sang our hearts
out in choir, or just got into the music of Grand Funk.

forever and a day.

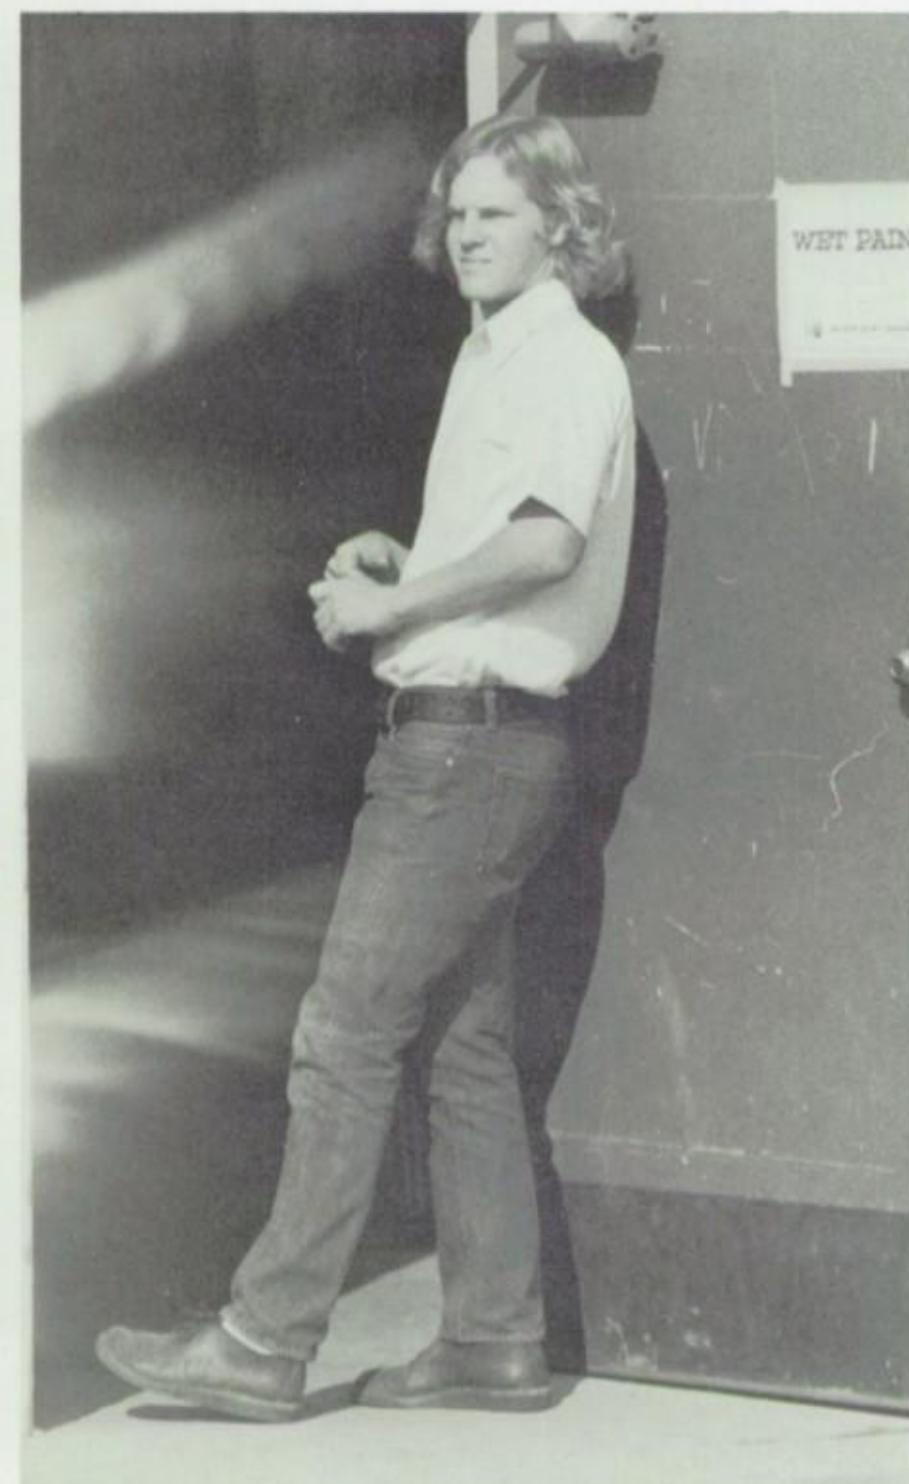

We'd live the life we choose.

We'd fight and never lose,

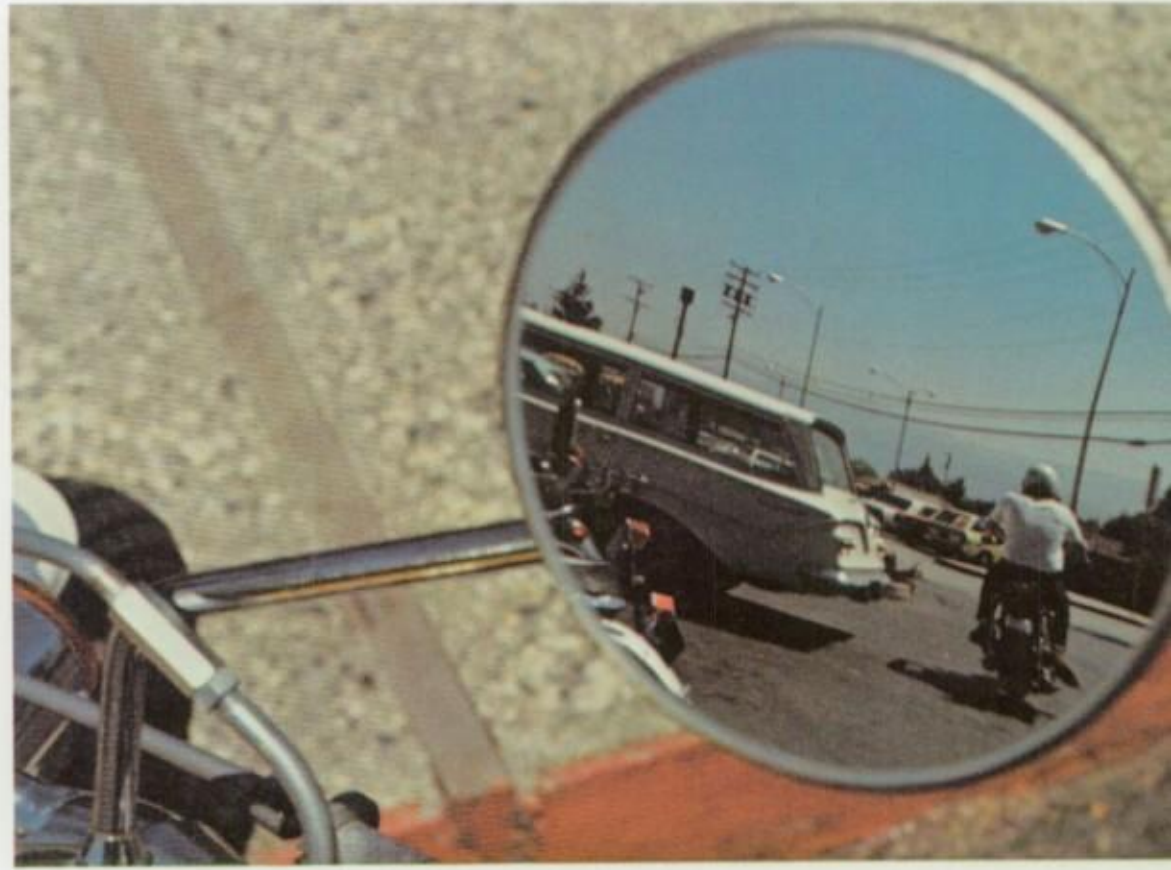

... when we won the Jamboree spirit trophy for the 6th consecutive year, or stomped Cupertino at the Homecoming game, or just gained a friend, or a good grade.

for we were young . . .

. . . when we went to the football games and raced to Pizza Hut or a party afterwards, or all met at the drive-in movies, or drove down to the beach, or up to the snow, or cruised around Sunnyvale to check the action, or just passed time with you.

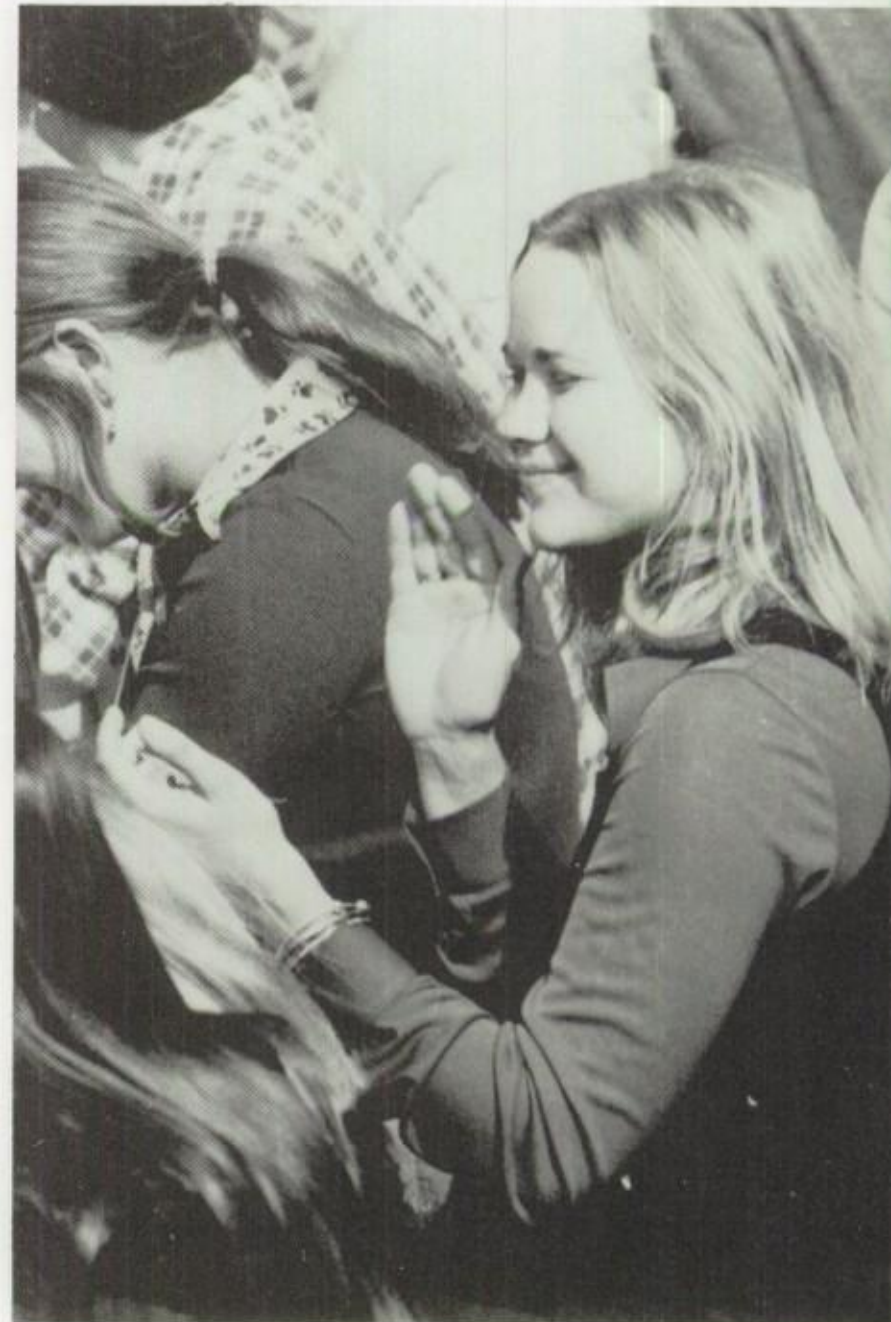

and sure to have our way.

Through the door . . .

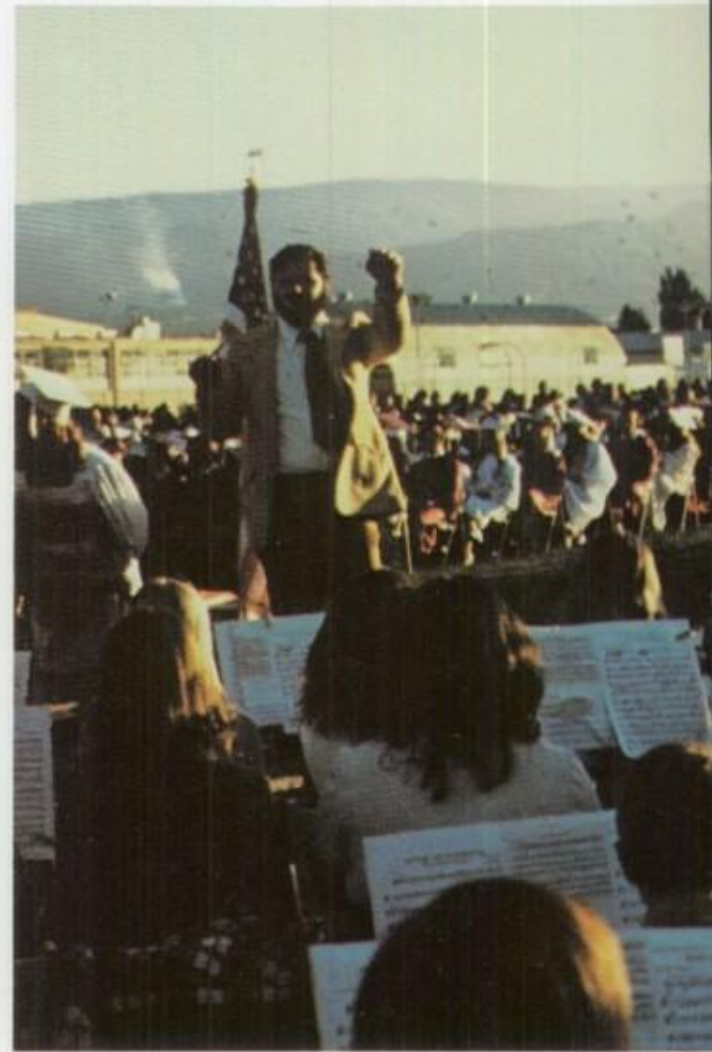

there came familiar laughter.

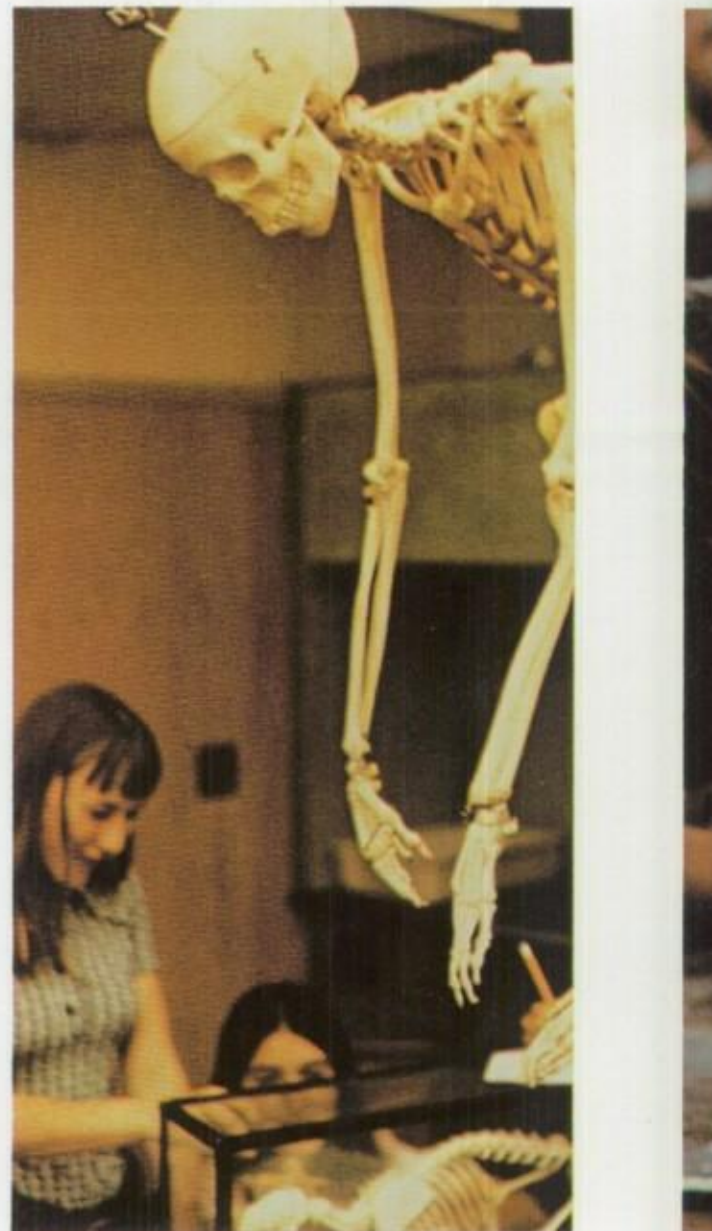

... when we used to take walks around the campus, or just sit outside on the lawn or on the football bleachers, or something funny happened in class.

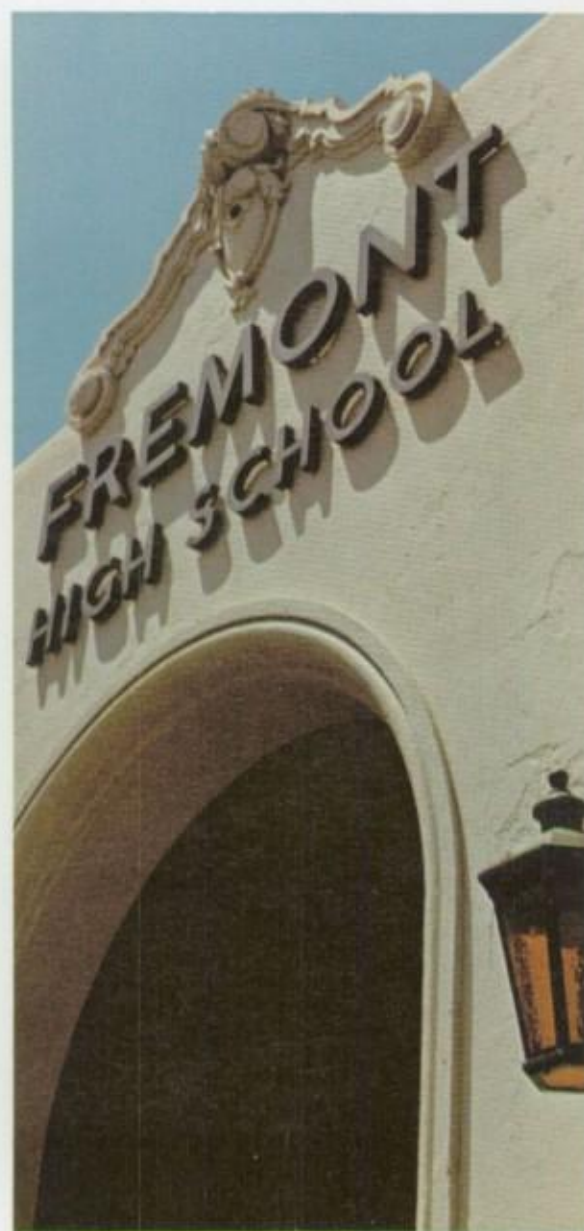

I saw your face . . .

. . . through the busy classroom, or when we threw frisbees in the rally court,
or studied for our next class, or listened to the music in the Wigwam, or copied each other's homework.

and heard you call my name.

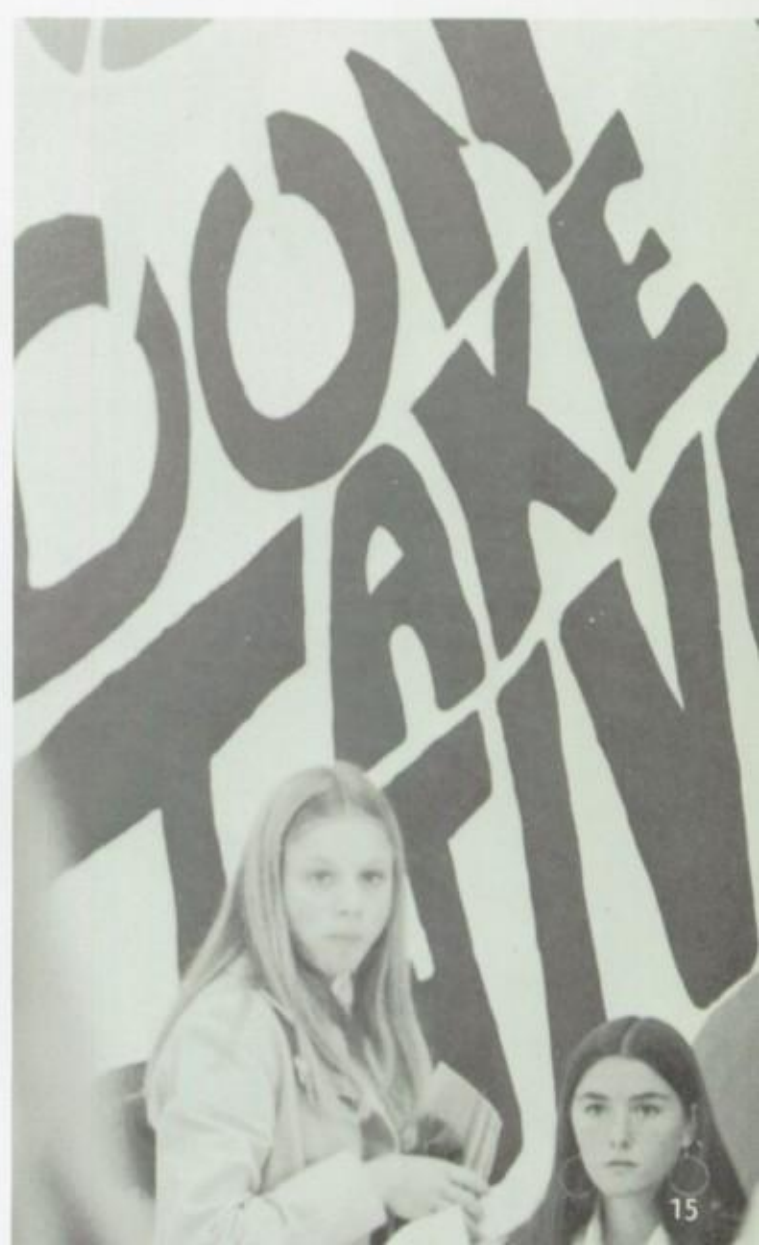

Oh, my friend...

... remember when we disagreed but never seemed to lose our friendship, or when we double dated,
or exchanged each other's confidences, or just hung around together,
and shared four years
of our lives...

we're older but no wiser for in our hearts . . .

the dreams are still the same.

A black and white photograph of a man and a woman standing outdoors in front of a large, leafy bush. The woman, on the left, is wearing a plaid jacket over a dark turtleneck and a long necklace. The man, on the right, is wearing a dark suit jacket and a patterned tie. They are both smiling at the camera.

A black and white photograph of five students posing in front of a building with large windows. Three young men stand in the back row, and two young women sit in the front row. The man on the left wears a patterned short-sleeved shirt and dark pants. The man in the center wears a light-colored short-sleeved shirt and dark pants. The man on the right wears a light-colored short-sleeved shirt and dark pants. The woman on the left in the front row has long hair and wears a dark jacket over a light shirt. The woman on the right in the front row has short hair and wears a dark top.

“Z to A”

For eons yearbook pictures have moved from A to Z. For the people who are always at the end of the line, in the last row of the classroom, and on the last pages of the yearbook...we dedicate these pages to you. Here is one bit of comfort we of the Pathfinder staff would like to give the X, Y and Z's.

The Class of '74 contained 611 Seniors. In order to finance its Senior Ball and All Night Party the Class undertook such fund raising events as the operation of a concession stand and the sale of Reese's peanut butter cups.

Stepping into the future

January 25th was the last day for 58 of Fremont's Seniors, the early graduates of 1974. At 1:30 an informal graduation ceremony was held in the main auditorium. Dr. Monahan was the honored guest. He was privileged to handout the diplomas and make the closing remarks. In all it was a very cheerful occasion.

It was truly a week of discoveries when 56 teachers and students traveled to Bahia de Los Angeles in Mexico. Even though the trip was mainly an oceanology excursion, students from physics and chemistry also went along. The trip was organized by oceanology teacher Mr. Mike Roa. Mr. Tim Wilson, Mr. Bruce Wilkinson and math assistant Mike Myers joined the group. Besides learning about the ocean and organisms, students gained new friends and re-discovered their old ones.

THE PERFECT YEAR

It was not a perfect year.
But has there ever been a perfect year?
Has there ever been a year
When all the love and health and fame
We wished for one another
Ever came to pass?

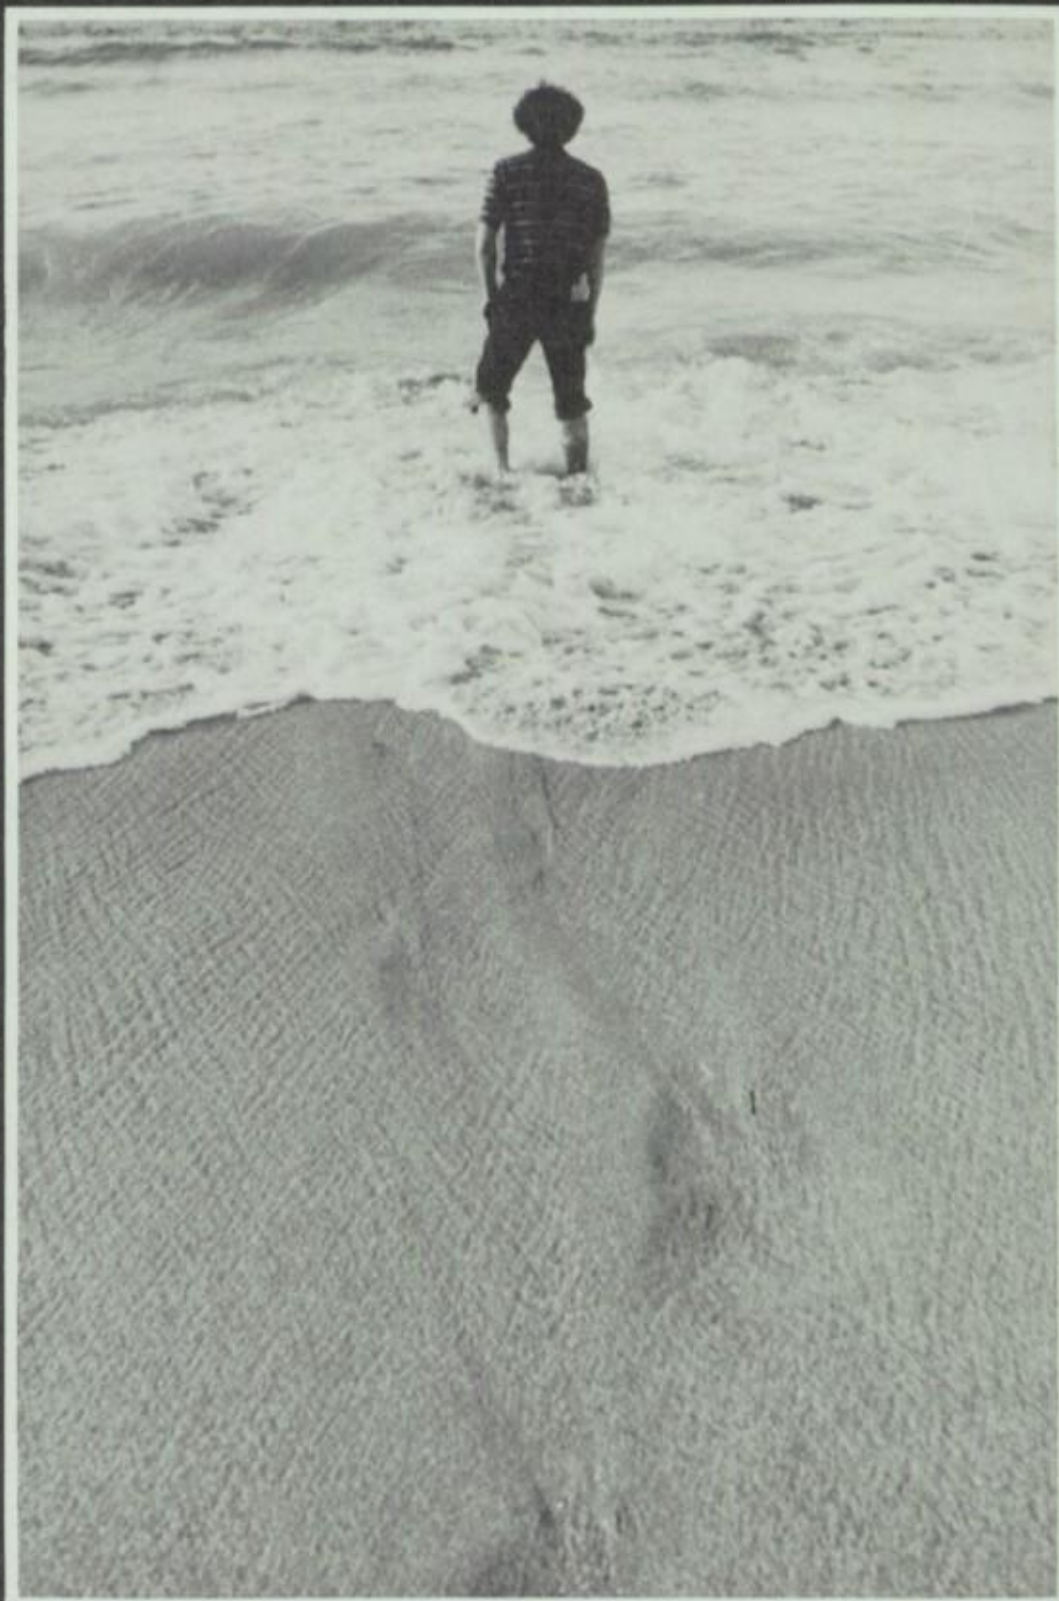

Yes, despite the disappointments
Of these, our complex lives,
We learn to make do make better make believe
That better days will come.

And if we do continue to believe
Who is to say
The perfect year
Will not yet be here?

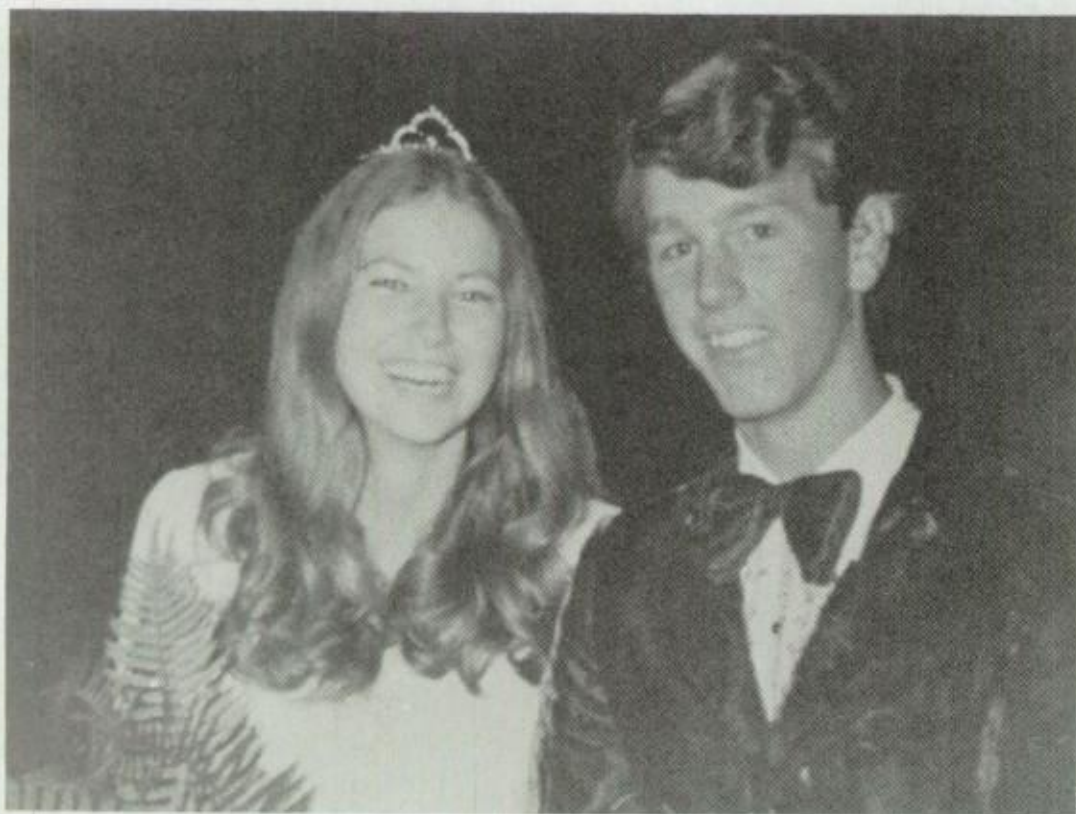

ACTIVITIES AND CLUBS

Homecoming '73—a touch of the islands

Martian-Indians, boisterous Seniors, and ninth module rallies opted their places during Homecoming week, as all four classes vied for the Spirit Trophy. All tried, but only one class could carry off the honor. The Sophomore Class proved its winning style. There were two victories that Friday night as the Fremont Indians stomped the Cupertino Pioneers and last year's Homecoming Queen Marilyn Adams returned to crown 1973 Homecoming Queen Susanne Coil. The Homecoming dance (Aloha Oe) ended Homecoming week in traditional style.

Boogie woogie to the barnyard blues

For only $2.99 couples could boogie to the swinging sounds of Mosaic at the 1973 Sadie Hawkins dance, Barnyard Boogie. The Cascaid sponsored girl-ask-boy dance proved successful. Couples were 'hitched' by Marryin' Sam, and Rafi Gonzales was named Mr. Irresistible.

Twinkling lights, soft music and Santa

This year's Christmas Ball, "La Nuit de Noel", was held in the Wigwam. The band, Jolly Ox, provided the music. It was one of the biggest dances held.

One hundred and forty pairs of lips in unison is a difficult task for any choir, but Fremont's A-Choir is not just any choir. They have demonstrated their fine singing ability at many choral programs, and with the expert guidance and patience of Mr. Russell Cummings and Mr. William Stretch, A-Choir is considered one of today's finest high school choirs.

Music makes our world go round

The mixed choirs delivered a variety of joyful contemporary and classical expressions throughout the fall and spring. SMMXENS, SMENS, mixed SMENS, women's SMENS, and advanced girls' choir maintained a much admired musical reputation. During the week prior to Christmas recess the choir members assembled to parade down the halls of campus, singing festive favorites. A barber shop quartet performed for the music department and later used the school's TV studio to video tape a practice session.

Music lovers swing to pop tunes

The February-held Pops Concert was attended by music lovers of all ages. The A and B Bands, Women's SMENS, Mixed SMENS, Advanced Girls' Choir, and SMMXENS performed. The talented groups were directed by Mr. Russell Cummings, Mr. William Stretch and Mr. Gordon Murphy.

Lovers danced to the mellow sounds of the Get Ready band as sweethearts embraced at the February-held Sweetheart Dance. The girl-ask-boy event was financed by a prize-drawing sponsored by the Featherettes. Winners were announced at the dance. Among the prizes was a trip for two to Disneyland, a color T.V. set, and a set of Good-year steel-belted tires.

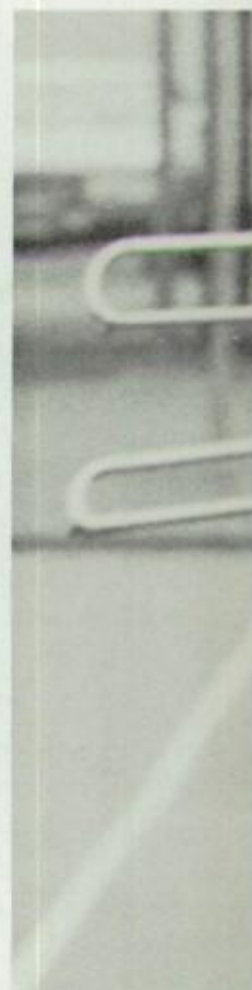

Band marches with hope of new duds

The band's main concern this year was its drive to purchase new uniforms. Members worked hard toward their financial goal by holding a pancake breakfast and several car washes, and by selling lapel buttons. The band added its spirit to many school activities and sports events. A selected number traveled to Idaho with the drill team.

The house of Bernarda Alba

THURSDAY NOV 29 and DEC 6 ~
FRIDAY NOV 30 and DEC 7 ~
SATURDAY DEC 1 and DEC 8 ~
ADULTS: 1.50 STUDENTS: 1.00

The House of Bernarda Alba is one of the greatest of Spanish tragedies. Repression of freedom and emotions and the force of honor are strong ingredients of the tragic explosion that takes place in the play.

The spring musical-comedy "Once Upon a Mattress", starred Seniors Ann Heitman and Kent Merritt. The musical, a farce on "The Princess and the Pea", included 15 songs. The cast of 10 leads and a 30-minute chorus was headed by Merritt as Prince Dauntless and Miss Heitman as Princess Winnifred. The crew and cast (totaling nearly 50) prepared for over eight weeks to be ready for seven performances. Mrs. Patricia Scozzaro acted as director with the help of technical director Mr. Ronald Geren. Musical directors were Mr. Gordon Murphy and Mr. William Stretch. Student director for the musical was Annette Maka. Jeff Stohl designed the set and Missy Kirschke and Steve Taylor designed the costumes.

(Below Left) Michele Zierman, Ben Romanowski, Jolyon Wurr, Lisa Hettler, and Traci Wilson are pictured as royal Lords and Ladies in the musical "Once Upon A Matress". The show proved quite successful as the curtains parted each night to a full audience of people. The production was put on by the Fremont Theatre Company through arrangements with Music Theatre International. Music was composed by Mary Rodgers and lyrics were written by Marshall Barer. The book was written by Jay Thompson and Dean Fuller.

Assembly holds profit-sharing candy sale

General Assembly managed to pull itself out of financial despair this year with many fund raising activities such as the Christmas Ball, football concessions and a school wide profit-sharing candy sale. Under the assistance of Adviser Mr. Paul Licciardello, the General Assembly this year revised the A.S.B. Constitution. The legislative body comprised of A.S.B. officers and commissioners, and class officers also instituted peer counseling.

World wide friendship . . .

This is our tree. With patience and love it grows and branches out to reach many people. So it is with our foreign exchange students. With the help of our patience and our love, they too have grown and branched out, reaching many of our lives. Our friends from afar have shared with us the joys, dreams, and frustrations of life. In sharing these feelings with us they have bridged the distance between our different cultures, and proved that brotherhood is indeed universal.

To the many people who have made their stay with us possible, thank you. We wish our foreign exchange students all the best that life has to offer them.

FHS news covers campus and community

Under new leadership of Mr. Tim Wilson, the Tuesday Report team completed another fine year of presenting the weekly news. This year's news casts featured special reports and interviews of outstanding people in the Bay Area.

From classrooms to tidepools

Oceanology Club went on many field trips during the 1973-74 school year. The club went to the Marine Research Facilities at the California State University in San Jose. They also went to Point Reyes, and they took elementary school age children to the tidepools at Natural Bridges. The club participated in the school's annual Baja Trip under the leadership of adviser Mike Roa.

Organizations unite individual talents

Members of Leo's service club cover the agenda during a morning meeting. Participants are Linda Roth, president Jennifer Perrik, Bruce Brisson and adviser Mrs. Margaret Wessels.

Club provides key to active campus life

Key Club, one of the campus' most active service organizations, collected food for Sunnyvale needy. It supported a girl in Ensenada and helped in the special Olympics for the handicapped. It aided the Muscular Dystrophy Drive and a fund-raiser volleyball game. Members also sold candy for the club and assisted in organizing homecoming activities. They ran a snack bar during some of the football and basketball games.

Concern for the environment...

The protection of the environment has increasingly become an important concern throughout the world. Recognizing this problem, the students under the leadership of Mr. Mike Roa have carried out a vigorous campaign of community awareness through the efforts of the campus Ecology Club.

Clubs cater to variety of interests

Bandjammers is the amateur radio club for Fremont. The club is for interested students who have a ham radio license, or for students who are interested in getting one. With their own band number, the club has contacted stations in over 100 Foreign countries. It has contacted over 1000 stations in the United States and Canada. Mr. Jean Gmelin is the club's advisor.

Class environment moves to wilderness Out-of-doors with nature: EFS

Extended Field Studies had several fund raising events during the year to help cut the cost of the annual week long field trip. By selling many baked goods and also recycling newspapers, they were able to raise part of their funds. Mr. Paul Bailey, Mrs. Kathy Williams and Mr. Tim Wilson were the advisors.

World is playground to foreign clubs

German Club spent it's time studying the language and the culture of Germany. The Spanish Club took a bus trip to Hermosillo, Mexico. The students lived in homes there and learned much about the Mexican way of life. French Club activities included a Falafel booth at the foreign language fun fair, See's sucker sale, and many dinners at Bay Area French restaurants. Many members will attend a six week trip to France in summer.

SPORTS AND SPIRIT

Varsity gridders seesaw . . .

Victory showed itself more this year as the much improved varsity football team with 19 Seniors and 12 returning squad members boosted their season record to 4-5 and their league record to 3-2. Last years trip to Redding was reversed as Central Valley travelled to Fremont only to lose 42-22. Indians selected as among the top ten players in the league were Mark Arvay, Keith Burchum, Bruce Palmer, Rick Armer and Gary Porter.

(Above) Rick Armer drives through the Lynbrook defense to score from the three yard line during the Jamboree. It was a year of frustration for Fremont's Junior Varsity, who's overall record was 4-3-2. Their league record was 1-2-2, finishing a dismaying 4th place. The toughest of their games was against Homestead, where the Mustangs came from behind to tie us. Coach Arvay does have high prospects for next year's team. Returning J.V. members, plus added Frosh members from this year's team, will build a strong, aggressive team next year. All league, first team, were Jack Masters, defensive back; Pat McGrady, lineman; and Joe Cortijo, offensive back. Honorable Mention for linemen include: Steve Ehler, Gary Quinonez, and Dave Nichols. Backs include Ron Pritchard, Scott Steele, and Tim Stokes.

Featherettes dance with heart and soul

The featherettes changed their look this year with brand new uniforms. Under the direction of Mrs. Marlene Rosburg, the drill team sold duraflame logs and pumpkins to finance the trip to Boise, Idaho to compete against drill teams from across the nation. The small precision group plans to travel to Santa Monica in the spring for a competition and the Miss Drill Team USA contest.

Indian kickers struggle through season

Varsity soccer battled tough competition during the muddy season, winning three games, losing seven, and tying one. The team's goalie Scott Wender had his hands full in maintaining a mean defense. The JV team faired well over its more experienced teammates, winning seven games, losing three, and drawing one tie.

Varsity takes seconds; JV's undefeated

The varsity had a disappointing season with a record of 2-3. JV's fared better with a 5-0 record. Fremont took fourth place in dual competition and second place overall in the league. Marty Mariani and Frank Tamura competed in the State Championships after they both finished in second place at the CCS finals held this year at Monta Vista. Senior Don Lawson set two records this year by being the only four year varsity wrestler who was never beaten, never tied in dual meet play. Second, he was the only one ever to win the CCS Region I finals four straight years.

Varsity tribesmen face distressing year

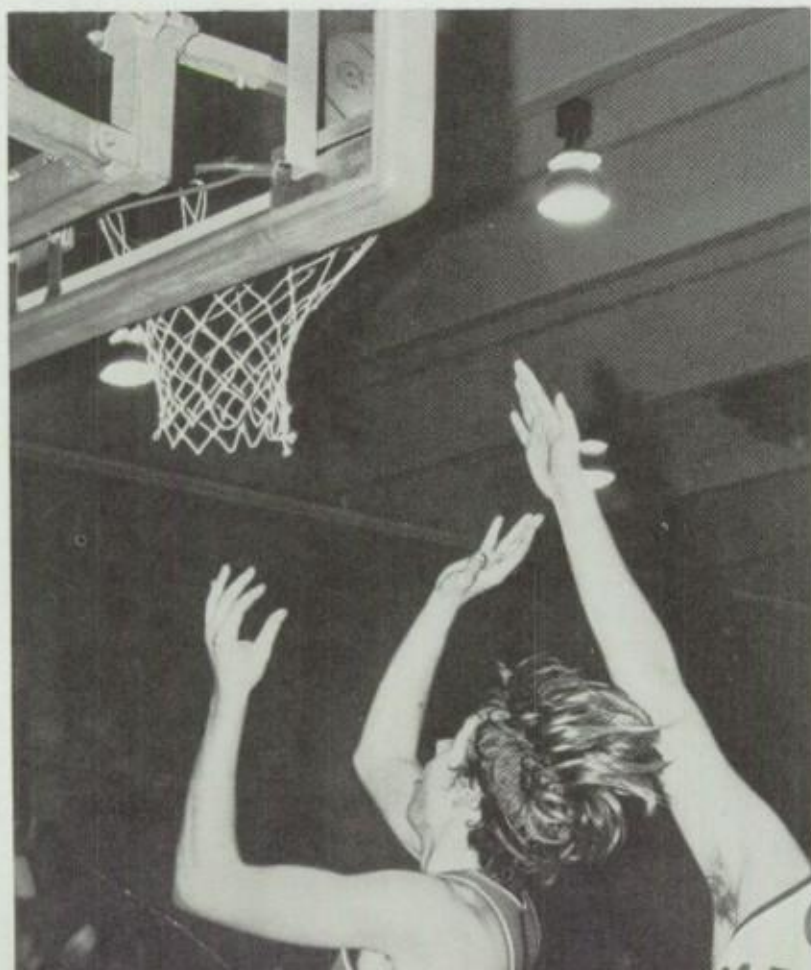

With an overall record of 10 wins and 14 losses, the varsity basketball team struggled hard through a long, disappointing season. The Indians achieved strength through the talents of Dean Finkenberg, who hit 54% of field goal attempts, and Rick Armer, who averaged 10.5 pts. per game. The team's record consisted of three wins and seven losses. According to Coach Phil Kelly, one of the toughest games was the first clash against Lynbrook; here the Indians came back in overtime to win 36-34. Five experienced members will return to strengthen the team.

Indians carry tomahawk into long season

Under the superb leadership of coach Terry Neff, this year's JV Basketball team fought and made an excellent representation of great team effort. Earning a league record of 10 wins and no losses, Fremont's netmen (with the outstanding efforts of Chip Wheatley, Bill Perry and Ken Lindsey) rose to capture first place in their league. Combined talents of team members, along with good coaching led the tribesmen to an overall season record of 19 wins and 2 losses. Seasoned veterans will add strength to build an equally superior team for next year.

Throughout the long season frosh netmen struggled to gain a league record of eight wins and two losses. Two outstanding players were Mark Seedorff and Jim Williams. With an overall season record of 10 and 5, coach Bill Pratt discovered many talents and skills; these future 'possibilities' will assist in making a strong JV team for next year.

Cee players are (Row One) I. Prentis, Mark Reiley, Ken Rodwell, Andy Dombro, Steve Roebuck, Gordon Israelsky, B. Downy, Yuki Imanaka, (Row Two) Don Lawson, Bob Waltman, Bob Angel, Doug Lee, Scott Wender, Chris Varvitsiotes, Bill Humphreys and Don Wong. The Cees ended their season with a league record of 10 wins and only one defeat. Their near perfect record may be attributed to aggressiveness and constant hustle, especially on the part of Doug Lee, Don Lawson and Scott Wender.

Indian minnows splash to perfect mark

The varsity water polo team faced some rough competition during the season with an overall record of 11-5, earning a fifth place in the league. The men also obtained fourth place in the Campolindo Tournament. Outstanding players were Dave Shapiro, Rafi Gonzales and Mark McGowen.

Summer 1973 brought many fond memories as the cheerleaders and songgirls went to camp at UCSC. While they were there, both cheerleading and song-girl squads won superior trophies and spirit sticks. In September of 1973, Fremont was again victorious in winning the highly coveted Spirit Award for the sixth straight year. Under the direction of Mrs. Sandra Gant, the spirit girls put on successful rallies and went to many competitions during the year.

Varsity baseball shows promise

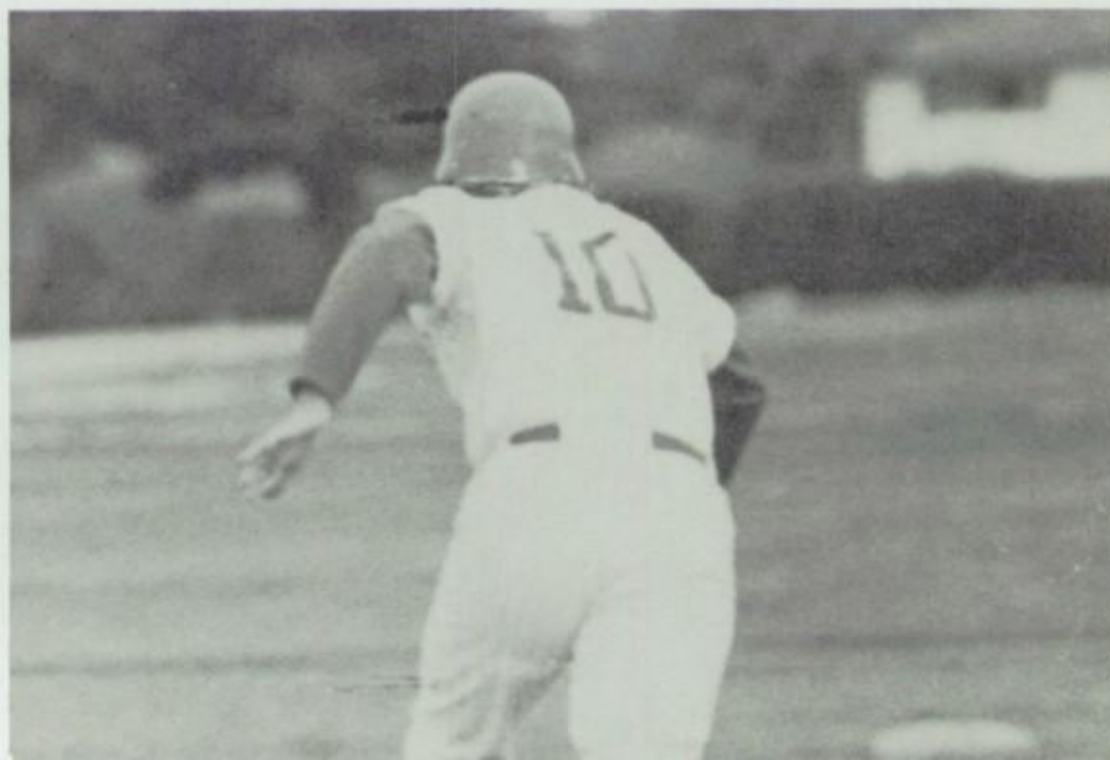

Early signs showed that the squad will have a better than average season. Outstanding players Mike Weaver and Carl Rittiman added spirit to the team. Steve Brown and Rick Armer had a hard hitting reputation at the plate.

Young clubmen battle through spring

The JV's emerged from their pre-season competition with a 4-3 record; three of the club's wins were by shutouts. Hurlers Vic Garcia, Steve Eheler, Randy Cohn and Marty Littlefield proved to be real work horses on the mound. Early season play saw Matt Maki lead the team in put outs with thirty-one while John Cardinali led in assists. The bats of Tom Matson, Steve Eheler and Ernie Weiss pounded out some high scores for the Indians.

The frosh baseball campaign was wide-open, with any of six teams, including Fremont, as title hopefuls. Our young Indians depended on the solid hitting of Scott Lucas, Mahina Young and Bob Elmensdorp. Pitchers Randy Cohn, Fred Williams and Andy Luke provided much potential for Fremont. Fielding and team defense progressed throughout the entire season.

Waves break, swim records stand

The swimming and diving teams combined to enter numerous individual and relay events during the spring season. It was an aquatic first for Fremont as three girls were added to the team rosters. Mr. John Schmitt coached the swim teams while Mr. Bob Gewertz guided the diving.

Coach Richard Steffen hoped that the varsity tennis team would finish second in the league. Chip Hooper and Mike Mendoza were predicted to finish high in the league in individual talents. Junior Val Mendoza became the first female to participate in this varsity sport. Three girls joined the JV team this year. Coach Kent Peterson expects the team to be among his most successful.

Fremont's G.S.C. started the 1973-74 season by competing in swimming, tennis, and hockey. The swimmers had a 3-3 record. And although young, the tennis team showed much promise for coming years.

Gals perform in active sports world

The girls had a fairly good basketball team this year, and received first place in the Live Oak Tourney. They attended a basketball camp in Oklahoma to gain more experience.

During the third quarter this year the girls competed in volleyball and gymnastics. The gymnastics team held its own during league competition. Volleyball is gaining in popularity; it is now becoming a game of precision in terms of power and control.

The last sports the girls participated in were softball, track, and badminton. Mrs. Ross, Miss Slack, Mrs. Gant, and Miss Tis, the girl's coaches, really helped the club. Their time and encouragement were invaluable. This year has been a good year for women's athletics at Fremont, and G.S.C. looks forward to more years of competition.

Breaking a long-standing Senior Class tradition the sophomores captured "most spirited" during annual Spirit Week. During December they sold Christmas candy canes to raise funds for the Soph Hop and other important dances and activities. As class president Michelle Rudin fulfilled the task of guiding the eventful year.

The Freshman Class began its life at Fremont with a realistic look to graduation year 1977. The 9th graders began fund raising events in order to earn money towards their junior and Senior activities. They sold mistletoe during the Christmas season and later began pushing class buttons.

Time rounds off the edges . . .

This is not just any yearbook. It is your yearbook. Its value is proportional to the investment you have made in your own education. I hope that each page will recall a pleasant memory, a challenge, and an accomplishment. As time rounds off the edges of the teenage years of struggle, I hope you will remember with kindness those who share this book with you. I wish I could be with you 25 years from now when you are defending these old fashioned classmates to your critical children.

Teachers, time, A or B day . . . the mill

The mill ran like usual during fall and spring signups, with the normal amount of anticipation, snarls, frustration and triumphs. English courses and U.S. government were the first to be filled by the onrush of early registering Seniors. Some departments found it necessary to open new sections. Following the mill, 736 students still found the need to go through the counseling office for a schedule change.

Odds and ends . . .

Those were the days. The final bell announces another summer, the last glimpse of someone's smile, and a new feeling towards the future. Things that once seemed commonplace are now part of us, pictures we'll carry with us for the rest of our lives--races won, bikes lost, frogs dissected, greasy clothes, scholarly canines, broken bones, test cramming, sailboats in swimming pools, friends being friends--good-by school year 1974.

Sharing of ideas makes book a reality

A yearbook is more than a collection of pictures and words; it's a story, a part of you. These pages mark but a flicker of your life; they are collected here so that some day you can leaf through them in a journey, reminiscing that "those were the days".

Your fellow students, the Pathfinder staff, have enjoyed putting these memories together. Our work has been made easier by the cooperation of administrators, faculty, and most of all, you...the students who made up the year 1974.

Many thanks to Mrs. Marilyn Brannan and our adviser Mr. Tim Wilson.
